Steve, Product Development Subject: Neoprene

Gasketing Kit Hi Tim, I have an enclosure that has been assembled and I noticed that the holes in the top cover are not gasketed. I have noticed that the holes are 8mm. The enclosure has been used with the "Neoprene Gasketing Kit" which states that the gasket will be 8mm or 6mm or 4mm. Can you please confirm how to size the gasket for this enclosure? Thanks in advance. -SteveQ: Launch another ubuntu desktop from a live cd/usb I used to use this tutorial to launch a desktop from a live usb or live cd and it has worked fine in the past.

Now I created another ubuntu computer and I don't know how to launch a desktop from the live cd (I can launch other applications, etc.) [edit] I followed the instructions and I can run the desktop at startup, but I also need to install drivers (for audio and video) and I don't have internet connection on the computer. The problem is that the desktop appears all black with an error: Failed to load session ubuntu Desktop (nothing at all). The error: Could not open X display. A: Try using these settings: 1. Select 'Try Ubuntu without installing' from the beginning of the boot menu. 2. Select 'Startup Disk' in the New Menu that appears when you boot. 3. Select 'Install Ubuntu' when the installer appears. You should see a screen that
